

The Chandler Education Foundation's VISION:CollegeBound Scholars

The goal of VISION:CollegeBound Scholars Program is to provide an incentive to maintain outstanding citizenship and scholarship, and to inspire a vision for the future. Since the program started in 1995, the Chandler Education Foundation has provided more than $750,000 in funding to CUSD graduates. A VCB Scholar commits to maintain a 3.4 GPA or higher, 95 percent school attendance and 100 hours of community service throughout the high school years.

Why be a VCB Scholar?

- Prepare for college and build your resume
- Be a part of your community
- Get the most out of high school
- Earn a reward for college!

Open enrollment for class of 2012:

Wednesday, October 15 —Friday, October 24, 2008

Information and enrollment forms are available in all CUSD high school career centers and freshmen counselor offices.

"I would not have been the same person I am today if I had not done the community service involved with VISION:CollegeBound." Tyler Libey, Basha High School Class of 2007

"VISION:CollegeBound gave me another incentive to come to school and do well. Knowing there was a way for me to pay for my college really motivated me to do my best." Bach-tru Chau, Hamilton High School Class of 2007

"I would tell other students to enroll in VCB because it helps you be involved in your community. It helps you build character and just become a better person." Brandon Van Norman, Chandler High School Class of 2007
